

UAV Spatial Inventory & Illumination Coverage Analysis

This cartographic layout illustrates the integration of high-resolution UAV orthophotography with topologically rigorous vector datasets. It displays precise building footprints alongside automated 15-meter proximity buffers, simulating street-level lighting coverage generated programmatically via the PyQGIS API.